

Would You Like to Run for Office?

Do you think you would be a candidate for holding an office?

Candidate Filing Periods:

Before a general election, there is a two-week filing period during which candidates can submit their affidavit of candidacy to the filing officer. Prospective candidates should contact the filing officer to learn which offices will be on the ballot at the upcoming election—some offices may only be up for election every two, three, four, or six years.
